ANZIIF Launch New Technical Webinar Series: Tuesday Deep-Dives

The Australian and New Zealand Institute of Insurance and Finance (ANZIIF) is proud to introduce our new webinar series, Tuesday Deep-Dives, designed to provide technical insights to insurance professionals.

Covering a broad range of topics across the insurance industry, Tuesday Deep-Dives will deliver expert-led discussions, case studies, and practical knowledge that insurance professionals can apply directly to their roles.

The first session, Catastrophe Perils: Insights into Risk Assessment and Cyclone Alfred's Impact, premieres on Tuesday, 18 March. Featuring experts from Xceedance, the webinar will explore CAT and non-CAT risks, catastrophe modelling fundamentals, and the real-world impact of Cyclone Alfred on Australia's insurance landscape.

Tuesday Deep-Dives will run fortnightly.

"At ANZIIF, we are committed to providing insurance professionals with the knowledge and expertise they need to navigate an evolving industry. The Tuesday Deep-Dives series is designed to deliver targeted, technical insights from industry experts, ensuring professionals can apply what they learn directly to their roles," say Katrina Shanks, CEO of ANZIIF.

"After listening to feedback from the industry, this series has been tailored for experienced professionals that are looking increase their knowledge in specific areas."

Registrations for the first webinar in the series can be made here. Visit the ANZIIF website at anziif.com.
