Hear insights from ANZIIF Fellows at the New 2026 Member Connect Series

ANZIIF members now have an exciting opportunity to hear directly from ANZIIF Fellows; some of the industry's most respected and experienced leaders, as part of the newly launched 2026 ANZIIF Member Connect Series.

The 2026 ANZIIF Member Connect series brings our professional community together across Australia, New Zealand and Hong Kong, creating a powerful platform for connection, collaboration and shared insight.

Member Connect offers an intimate setting designed exclusively for our valued members to step inside ANZIIF's VIP inner circle. Each event will feature moderated, fireside-chat style conversations with a small group of ANZIIF Fellows coming together to share candid career reflections and lessons learned from years at the forefront of the profession.

Launching in five cities across Australia this February, ANZIIF's 2026 Member Connect offers a rare platform for attendees to draw from leaders shaping the industry, explore real world challenges and network in a dynamic, welcoming space.

Member Connect reflects ANZIIF's commitment to giving back to its members, and advancing professional excellence through meaningful membership, trusted learning and industry connection.

Katrina Shanks, CEO of ANZIIF, says the series responds to growing demand for high-value member experiences.

"ANZIIF Member Connect is about creating meaningful moments, bringing members closer to the people who have shaped our industry and providing space for open, honest conversation," Shanks says. "It's a powerful new way for members to engage with ANZIIF and each other."

Don't miss your chance to step away from the day-to-day, spark conversation, develop business relationships and grow industry community across the insurance and finance industry.

You'll be part of a connected regional network, strengthening professional ties and gaining perspectives that support your growth and success across Asia Pacific.

Places are limited, so members are encouraged to secure their place at this VIP addition to the ANZIIF calendar.
