

PIBF51-15 Personal Injury Management Business Fundamentals Unit

BACKGROUND

As a component of Diploma of Personal Injury Management, you should be able to apply appropriate business skills when working in an office environment.

This unit cover the following skills, which are regarded as essential in an office environment:

1. Apply principles of professional practice to work in the financial services industry (FNSINC401).

Students need to be able to interpret and apply procedures to deal with situations as they occur in the workplace.

INSTRUCTIONS TO WORKPLACE OBSERVER

Once students have successfully completed the online course component they need to undertake three successful workplace observations to demonstrate they have acquired the appropriate skills.

1. The workplace observer should be a supervisor or manager with experience and/or knowledge in the skills/competencies/tasks being assessed.
2. You will negotiate a suitable date, time and venue for a client interaction, including you as the nominated workplace observer.
3. If applicable, request the client's permission before this observation takes place.
4. You will need to email, post or fax the completed and signed workplace observation checklist to ANZIIF within six (6) weeks following the student's completion of the online component of this course.
