FELLOW CIP

Certified Insurance Professional (CIP)

The ANZIIF CIP designation demonstrates a professional's commitment to a career in insurance.

CIP members must:

- Have an ANZIIF qualification or equivalent;
- Participate in 25 hours of professional development per year (25 CIP points); and
- Adhere to the ANZIIF Code of Ethics.

ANZIIF provides an extensive library of technical articles, interactive online activities, a range of professional development events, and courses and qualifications to help members reach their 25 CIP points per year.

CIP Member Digital Badge

ANZIIF have partnered with Credly to provide CIP members with a digital badge – a new way to validate skills and achievements digitally. CIP Members can now share this achievement with employers, clients, peers and the industry digitally.

Professional Development

Professional Development opportunities ensure that members retain the high level of expertise and knowledge essential for reaching their career goals.

Professional Development Content

Designed to maintain and develop skills and knowledge, members have access to articles, interactive online activities, white papers and videos through ANZIIF's ever-growing Professional Development section on the website.

E-Newsletters

ANZIIF members receive fortnightly ANZIIF newsletters which contain, professional development activities and articles focused on technical information, soft skills, profiles and general career advice.

The Journal

The Journal is the longest running and most widely read insurance publication in the Asia-Pacific region. Members receive a copy of the publication as an e-magazine and the Journal articles are listed on the website.

Events

Each year, ANZIIF hosts professional development events including seminars, conferences, study courses, breakfasts and luncheons covering all sector areas.

ANZIIF members receive a 20 percent discount at ANZIIF professional development events.

ANZIIF Webinar Recordings

ANZIIF has a program of interactive webinars that gives you the flexibility to engage with industry experts from the comfort of your own learning environment. ANZIIF members get access to all ANZIIF Webinar recordings. Visit anziif.com/videos

Education

ANZIIF's education model focuses on the specific skills needed by insurance professionals to keep their skill set and knowledge up to date.

Skills Units

ANZIIF Skills Units are online, interactive courses based on real-world scenarios that focus on specific competencies and learning outcomes relevant to the individual's professional development needs. Skills Units can be completed in either five or seven weeks, with regular start dates.

Certificates & Qualifications

Skills Units can be combined in various ways to achieve ANZIIF Certificates – insurance-based qualifications representing industry standards of excellence. All ANZIIF Certificates are formally recognised, internationally portable and available in three levels:

ANZIIF also offers AQF qualifications (Certificate IV and Diploma) via Skills Units.

Compliance

ANZIIF offers a range of Australian Securities and Investments Commission Regulatory Guide 146 (ASIC RG146) compliance solutions for financial services professionals. Compliance options are available in General Insurance, Insurance Broking and Life Insurance.

Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL)

ANZIIF's Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL) allows the skills and knowledge previously gained through employment, training, volunteering and life experience to be put towards attainment of an ANZIIF qualification.

Visit anziif.com/rpl for further information.

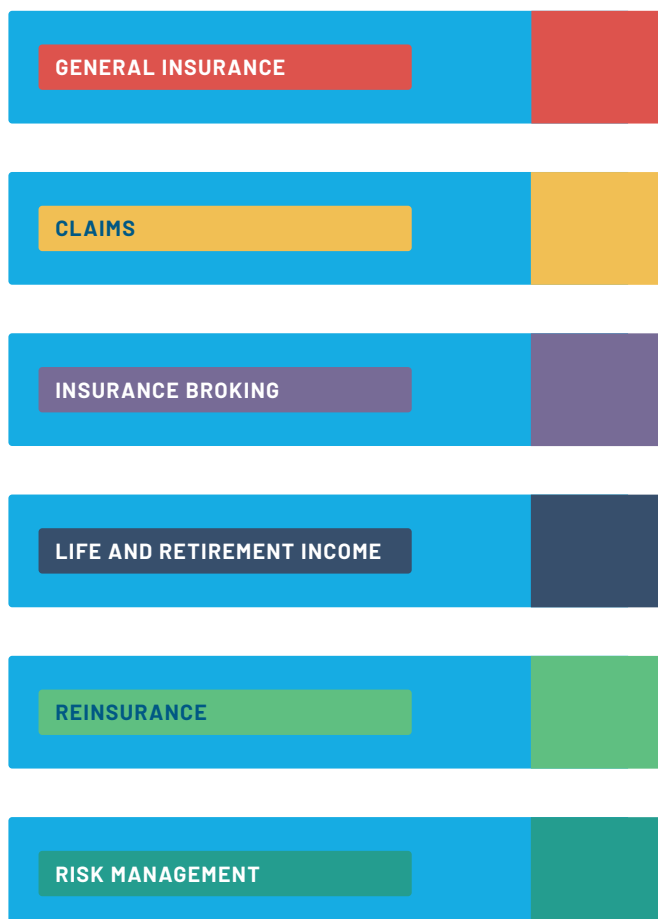

While studying with ANZIIF, students receive complimentary membership for the remainder of the year in which they have studied.

Community

ANZIIF provides all sectors of the insurance industry with the opportunity to belong to a broader professional community.

Sectors are classifications based on your career path and/or industry qualifications. Selecting your sector customises your membership and personalise our communication with you.

Social Media

ANZIIF's social media channels allow members to keep up-to-date with news while networking with the greater insurance community.

Awards & Scholarships

Throughout the year, there are many awards and scholarships available to enter, including the Australian and New Zealand Insurance Industry Awards, Making a Difference Awards and Academic Awards.

Visit anziif.com for information including criteria, submission requirements, how to become a sponsor and to buy tickets.

Industry Initiatives

ANZIIF is dedicated to supporting the industry, as well as facilitating opportunities for individuals and companies to participate in industry initiatives.

The Corporate Support program comprises a diverse group of companies who share the desire to see the industry and its people succeed. The program has three main goals:

1. Promote and lift the profile of the insurance industry
2. Support people working in the industry
3. Help communities understand the role insurance and risk play in their lives.

CAREERS IN INSURANCE

Careers in Insurance is a dynamic cross industry project to raise awareness of insurance as a career choice. Careers in Insurance inspires young people, career changers and other members of the community to see the diverse, challenging, rewarding and exciting opportunities the insurance industry has to offer.

Visit careersininsurance.com.au to find out more.

Advisory Boards, Councils and Committees

ANZIIF has numerous advisory boards, councils and committees, the members of which meet on a regular basis to discuss industry issues and assist ANZIIF to achieve its goals.

ANZIIF Councils – ANZIIF’s Generation i Council aims to engender a sense of community among young insurance professionals through networking and career development events.

ANZIIF’s People and Talent Development Advisory Council (PATDAC) contributes to the achievement of professional excellence by providing a forum for discussion and debate about current industry trends and training needs.

ANZIIF Sector and Member Advisory Boards – ANZIIF has numerous Sector and Member Advisory Boards, the members of which meet on a regular basis to discuss industry issues and assist ANZIIF to achieve its goals.
