Special consideration

Applicants within 10 points of gaining Fellowship may apply for Special Consideration. Favourable consideration will be given where exceptional leadership in the industry can be demonstrated in addition to the above criteria outlined in the Fellowship Passport. ANZIIF's Fellowship Review Committee will review the application to determine whether Fellowship will be granted.

Conditions of eligibility

Prospective CIP Fellows may allocate and combine the points under each category, as relevant to their situation, to attain the required 100 points to be eligible for CIP Fellowship and supply certified documentation supporting their application. Points can only be accrued once for undertaking compliance. Similarly, an international applicant can only accrue points once for undertaking other local law and regulation training recognised by ANZIIF.
