Submissions open for 2018 New Zealand Insurance Industry Awards

Submissions are now open for the seventh New Zealand Insurance Industry Awards, hosted by the Australian and New Zealand Institute of Insurance and Finance (ANZIIF).

The Awards is an annual celebration that acknowledges the accomplishments of individuals and businesses in the New Zealand insurance industry.

“There are so many businesses and individuals in New Zealand insurance who deserve recognition for their outstanding achievements,” said Prue Willsford, CEO of ANZIIF.

“It is important that we take the time to reflect on what we’ve achieved at an individual, organisational and industry level with the hope that this reflection will drive innovation and stimulate ideas to propel our industry into the future,” Willsford said.

With sixteen categories in total, the 2018 Awards categories are as follows:

- Small — Medium Broking Company of the Year
- Large Broking Company of the Year
- Underwriting Agency of the Year
- Direct General Insurance Company of the Year
- Intermediated Insurance Company of the Year
- Life Insurance Company of the Year
- Innovation of the Year
- Service Provider to the Insurance Industry
- Professional Services Firm of the Year
- Insurance Learning Program of the Year
- Young Insurance Professionals Employer of the Year
- Women’s Employer of the Year
- Young Insurance Professional of the Year
- Broking Professional of the Year
- Insurance Leader of the Year
- ANZIIF Lifetime Achievement Award

Submissions close Thursday 12 July 2018.
