Panellists announced as 32nd ANZIIF General Insurance Breakfast goes virtual

The Australian and New Zealand Institute of Insurance and Finance have announced the panellists for the 32nd General Insurance Breakfast which will be hosted virtually on December 02.

Damian Falkingham, ANZIIF General Manager Industry Engagement spoke about ANZIIF's decision to host the event virtually in light of the ongoing COVID-19 pandemic.

'The General Insurance Breakfast has been around for over three decades, and historically is one of the highlights on the annual insurance calendar for industry professionals,' says Falkingham. We are pleased to be able to host this year's event virtually and provide a platform for the insurance community to come together to learn and connect.'

'Attendees will be joined by an experienced panel of insurance experts from across Australia to reflect on 'the year that was', discuss current market trends, explore issues and opportunities and discuss what the future holds. I encourage industry professional to take advantage of ANZIIF's early bird sale which ends this Friday 30 October.'
