‘NEW’ Zealand insurance: 2015 ANZIIF Risk Rendezvous highlights increasing complexity of NZ insurance business

The future of telematics, the growing MGA market, health and safety reforms, and the rise of cyber security issues lead the list of industry topics to be addressed at this year’s ANZIIF Risk Rendezvous (RR15).

Themed ‘Changing Market Dynamics’, RR15 will focus on the upcoming challenges, market changes and reforms that the New Zealand insurance industry will face in coming years.

The annual conference’s line-up features a host of industry leaders from insurance, business and government, including Paul Ash, Director, National Cyber Policy Office, Department of the Prime Minister and Cabinet; Ian Pollard, Managing Director, Delta Insurance; and Scott Galloway, Partner, Hazelton Law and Lloyd’s general representative in NZ.

“The breadth of the program reflects the number of emerging risks and opportunities in the New Zealand insurance market, as well as the growing need for insurance professionals to keep up with a shifting and increasingly challenging market.

“Risk Rendezvous is a fundamental part of ANZIIF’s work to ensure that New Zealand insurance professionals have access and exposure to the experts, ideas and issues that will affect them and their businesses in the years to come,” said Prue Willsford, CEO, Australian and New Zealand Institute of Insurance and Finance (ANZIIF), which hosts the annual event.

The 2015 ANZIIF Risk Rendezvous will be held in Auckland on 11–12 August. More information is available from theinstitute.com.au/events.
