ANZIIF MEMBERSHIP

ANZIIF membership represents the highest standards of practice and integrity for insurance professionals within the Asia Pacific region.

There are six levels of ANZIIF membership, which are based on the member's experience and/or qualifications.

ANZIIF's member levels ensure membership opportunities for insurance professionals from the beginning to the end of their careers. ANZIIF students enrolled in an award course module will automatically be awarded student membership status. Allied membership is granted to professionals who work in the insurance industry but do not have an insurance professional qualification.

Affiliate, Associate, Senior Associate and Fellows are Certified Insurance Professionals (CIP) and those who hold a CIP membership demonstrate a commitment to ongoing learning and development and to a career in insurance.

To maintain CIP status, CIP members are required to:

- have an ANZIIF qualification or equivalent
- maintain 25 CIP points per year by participating in 25 hours of professional development per year
- adhere to the ANZIIF Code of Ethics.

LIFELONG LEARNING

Learning and professional development are vital to growing careers and to achieving ongoing success. Formal qualifications enhance professional credibility and ANZIIF's education model focuses on the specific skills needed by insurance professionals to keep their skill set and knowledge up to date. ANZIIF offers a variety of professional development options to suit all levels of experience.

Skills Units

Skills Units are online, interactive short-courses based on real-world scenarios that focus on specific competencies and learning outcomes relevant to the individual's professional development needs. Skills Units can be completed in either five or seven weeks.

Qualifications

Skills Units can be combined in various ways to achieve ANZIIF Qualifications — insurance-based qualifications representing industry standards of excellence. All ANZIIF Qualifications are formally recognised, internationally portable and available for all skill and experience levels.

Resources for Induction Programs

General Insurance Essentials is designed to provide a holistic introduction to the insurance industry. This short course is an ideal complement to an induction program for employers and is also beneficial for individuals who intend to establish a sound understanding of General Insurance.

Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL)

ANZIIF offers qualifications through RPL. This is a process of evaluating what has been learned either formally or informally and providing full or partial credit for an ANZIIF qualification. Visit anziif.com/rpl for further information.

A MAN OF INFLUENCE — CHAN HWEE SENG

When Crawford loss adjuster Chan Hwee Seng got a call from a broker about a break-in at a jewellery shop at 4:30 am in the morning, he grabbed his camera and went straight to the scene.

'We must respond quickly to protect underwriters' interests,' says Chan, who is currently Crawford Singapore's Chairman.

Starting his career as a trainee loss adjuster, Chan feels very privileged that Crawford management saw in him the potential to lead the company.

'I was given a lot of opportunities to learn, and as I see it, leadership should be by example,' he says.

'From day one, I inculcated new recruits with the proper values of the profession like integrity, fairness and delivering prompt and efficient claims services to clients.'

Having trained many loss adjusters in Singapore, Chan is extremely proud that wherever he goes, people remember his influence.

As far as he is aware, Chan is the first ever Asian loss adjuster to be employed by an international loss adjusting company.

His first six months on the job, he attended a massive fire at the local Robinson Department Store which killed nine people. For Chan, the experience decided him on loss adjusting as a career.

After 14 years at Graham Miller, Chan was appointed managing director, a position he held for 18 years, including through the company's acquisition by Crawford USA in 1990.

In 2004, he became Executive General Adjuster, Global Technical Services (GTS) and Chairman, Crawford Singapore.

He is well-known for exposing insurance fraud.

'Whether you call me a managing director or chairman, I'm still basically a loss adjuster,' Chan modestly says.

Chan is very concerned that a major shortage of loss adjusting talent will impact insurers' ability to deal with highly complex claims of the future.

'My point of view would be to incorporate both insurance and loss adjusting into the school curriculum, so students do not view this subject as something so alien when they graduate.'

For that reason, Chan has chosen to play a major role in the education of claims handlers.

In 2010, he was instrumental in setting up the Claims Technician Course (CTC) a collaboration between the Australasian Institute of Chartered Loss Adjusters (AICLA) and the Singapore Insurance Institute.

To date, more than 300 claims personnel have undergone the training and qualified by examination.

Chan's advice to aspiring loss adjusters is to be connected to the industry.

'We can't work in isolation,' he says. 'Loss adjusting is a component of the insurance industry which is part of financial services in any country.'

He also has the following message for the industry:

1. Be client-centric — without clients, our business would not exist. Our role is to ensure that we deliver our services and products in a fast, efficient, high-quality manner.
2. Return to the basics of honesty and integrity, hard work and building knowledge.
3. Be innovative — We must be geared towards clients' requirements as their business models change.
