MEMBERSHIP

ANZIIF membership offers opportunities at all career stages, starting with Allied membership, for those yet to obtain insurance qualifications and rising to the prestigious level of Fellow, for those with post-graduate qualifications and strong insurance experience. ANZIIF members (above Allied level) are classified as Certified Insurance Professionals (CIP) and are eligible to use ANZIIF post-nominals.

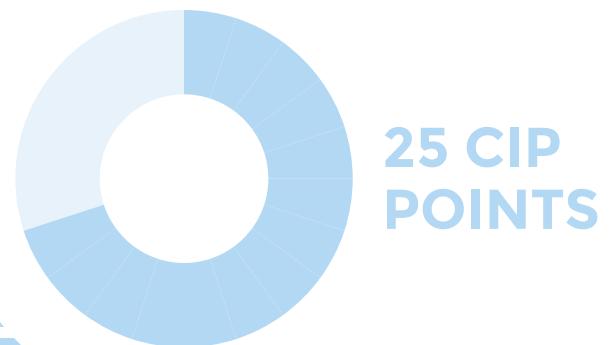

An ANZIIF post-nominal demonstrates a high level of professional competence, allowing members to stand out from the crowd.

CERTIFIED INSURANCE PROFESSIONAL (CIP)

The ANZIIF CIP designation demonstrates a professional's commitment to a career in insurance.

CIP members must:

- Have an ANZIIF qualification or equivalent;
- Participate in 25 hours of professional development per year (25 CIP points); and
- Adhere to the ANZIIF Code of Ethics.

ANZIIF provides an extensive library of technical articles, interactive online activities, a range of professional development events, and courses and qualifications to help members reach their 25 CIP points per year.

Professional Development

Professional Development opportunities ensure that members retain the high level of expertise and knowledge essential for reaching their career goals.

MEMBERS' CENTRE

Designed to maintain and develop skills and knowledge, members have access to articles, forums, news, essays, videos and interactive professional development activities through ANZIIF's ever-growing Members' Centre.

THE JOURNAL

ANZIIF CIP members receive the longest running and most widely read insurance publication in the Asia-Pacific region, the Journal.

E-NEWSLETTERS

ANZIIF members receive fortnightly e-newsletters that contain the latest industry news, technical information, soft skills and general career advice.

PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT EVENTS

Each year, ANZIIF hosts professional development events across Australia, New Zealand and Asia.

ANZIIF members receive a 20 percent discount at ANZIIF professional development events. A full list of upcoming events is available at anziif.com/events

Education

ANZIIF's education model focuses on the specific skills needed by insurance professionals to keep their skill set and knowledge up to date.

SKILLS UNITS

ANZIIF's Skills Units are flexible, online and can be completed in 5-7 weeks. Skills Units focus on specific insurance skills and utilise real-world scenarios. They can be studied individually or combined to attain a range of qualifications.

CERTIFICATES & QUALIFICATIONS

Skills Units can be combined in various ways to achieve ANZIIF Certificates—insurance-based qualifications representing industry standards of excellence. Traditional qualifications, offered under the Australian Quality Training Framework (AQTF), such as diplomas, are also available.

COMPLIANCE

ANZIIF offers a range of Australian Securities and Investments Commission Regulatory Guide 146 (ASIC RG146) compliance solutions for financial services professionals. Compliance options are available in General Insurance, Insurance Broking and Life Insurance.

RECOGNITION OF PRIOR LEARNING (RPL)

ANZIIF's Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL) allows the skills and knowledge previously gained through employment, training, volunteering and life experience to be put towards attainment of an ANZIIF qualification.

Community

ANZIIF provides all sectors of the insurance industry with the opportunity to belong to a broader professional community.

FACULTIES

Faculties are classifications based on your career path and/or industry qualifications. Being part of a faculty customises your membership. Our faculties are broken into the following areas:

Claims

General Insurance

Insurance Broking

Reinsurance

Risk Management

Life, Health and Retirement Income

SOCIAL MEDIA

ANZIIF's social media channels allow members to keep up-to-date with news while networking with the greater insurance community.

AWARDS & SCHOLARSHIPS

Throughout the year, there are many awards and scholarships available to enter, including the Australian Insurance Industry Awards and the New Zealand Insurance Industry Awards, which are held in August/September and November respectively each year.

Visit anziif.com/awards for further information on awards criteria, submission requirements, how to become a sponsor and to buy tickets. For information on scholarships, visit anziif.com/scholarships

Industry Initiatives

ANZIIF is dedicated to supporting the industry, as well as facilitating opportunities for individuals and companies to participate in industry initiatives.

CORPORATE SUPPORTER

The Corporate Support program comprises a diverse group of companies who share the desire to see the industry and its people succeed. The program has three main goals:

1. Promote and lift the profile of the insurance industry
2. Support people working in the industry
3. Help communities understand the role insurance and risk play in their lives.

CAREERS IN INSURANCE

Targeting high school and university-level students, Careers in Insurance aims to increase awareness of the breadth of opportunities in the industry as well as provide information on the challenges and rewards of working in insurance. For more information, visit careersininsurance.com.au or careersininsurance.co.nz

KNOW RISK

Know Risk is a community education program to improve the awareness of, preparedness for, and response to risk. The program educates its audience on the role insurance plays in risk management. To find out more about Know Risk, visit knowrisk.com.au

INTEREST GROUPS

ANZIIF recognises that certain groups have different needs from those of the greater insurance community.

ANZIIF Councils—The ANZIIF Women’s Council supports community engagement and the exchange of knowledge and expertise between women across the industry through research, events and the promotion of gender diversity.

Follow the ANZIIF Women in Insurance page on LinkedIn.

ANZIIF’s Generation i Council aims to engender a sense of community among young insurance professionals through networking and career development events.

ANZIIF Faculty and Member Advisory Boards—ANZIIF has numerous Faculty and Member Advisory Boards, the members of which meet on a regular basis to discuss industry issues and assist ANZIIF to achieve its goals.
